

Lesson 20 The Letter d

Lesson 20

The Letter d

door

Handwriting practice lines for the letter 'd'. The first row contains ten dashed 'd's for tracing. The second row is blank for practice. The third row contains two dashed 'd's for tracing, followed by a dashed 'd' with a cross on top for tracing, and a dashed 'd' with a cross on top for tracing. The fourth row contains a dashed 'd' with a cross on top for tracing, followed by a dashed 'd' with a cross on top for tracing, and a dashed 'd' with a cross on top for tracing.

45

Aim of the Lesson

To teach the manuscript letter d.

Directions

The children should trace over the strokes and letters in row one. Row two is for practice of this letter. In row three, the word dot is to be traced over each time. The children should use the end of the row to continue practicing the letter d. The letter b, which is reviewed in row four, should be traced over, then copied to the end of the row.