

Lesson 115

Writing Sentences Using L

Lesson 115 Writing Sentences Using L

The Lord loves all that obey Him.

29

Aim of the Lesson

To help the children learn to write sentences neatly and correctly, with emphasis on the letter L, straight lines, and posture.

Instructions for the Teacher

Send the children to the blackboard. Have the children write the capital and small letter L several times, very briefly discussing their formation. Then have them print the sentence "The Lord loves us." Check their blackboard posture. They should be standing straight on both feet, a short distance back from the board.

Discuss the meaning of the sentence "The Lord loves all that obey