

This is the first place that the term double consonants is used in this book. Double means "two." Double consonants are two like consonants side by side.

PART B

1. Write all. Circle ll in the word you write. Then write the spelling words that end with ll. Circle ll in these words, too.

all      fell

spell      still

2. Which spelling words end with ss, dd, and ff? Circle the double consonants in the words you write.

across      off

add

3. Write call. Then write the spelling word that is a form of call. Circle the double consonants in both words.

call      called

4. Write hide. Then write the spelling word that is a form of hide. Circle d and dd.

hide      hidden

5. In which spelling words do you see the double consonants pp, nn, and tt?

happy      dinner

apples      kettle

6. Say the words that you wrote in exercise 5. Hear two syllables in each word.

Write the words again. Put a dot between the syllables as shown in this word.      hap·py

Divide each of the words between the double consonants.

hap·py      din·ner

ap·ples      ket·tle

7. Write only the words from this group that have double consonants.

bring      funny      hall
carry      card      rabbits

carry      hall

funny      rabbits