

Name _____

(Lesson 18)

Worksheet 12
End Marks in Quotations

1. Add the correct marks to these sentences.
 - a. What a beautiful rainbow exclaimed Mother
 - b. Did you know God made the rainbow she asked
 - c. I know He made the rainbow, said John
 - d. He made the first rainbow after Noah came out of the ark, said Gladys
 - e. Where does the rainbow end asked little Katie
 - f. There is another rainbow exclaimed John
 - g. Do you think Father sees the rainbows asked Mother
 - h. Do you think Grandmother sees them asked Katie
2. Put quotation marks where they belong in this story.

Mother, look! See what we found! exclaimed Leon and Lily. Two pairs of bright brown eyes sparkled with excitement.

Mother looked at the tiny bird Leon was holding. It sat quietly on his hand and looked up at them with bright little eyes.

Isn't it a pretty little bird, Mother? Lily stroked it very gently with her finger.

A tiny hummingbird! breathed Mother softly. Where did you find it? she asked.

Out on the lane, Lily answered.

Leon said, It must have fallen out of its nest. I think it's too little to fly. Can we feed it, Mother, till it grows big enough to fly?

What will it eat? Lily wondered. Then she asked, Shall I catch a bug?

Hummingbirds drink nectar out of flowers, Mother explained.

Worksheet 12 Answers

1. (Corrected items are underlined.)
 - a. "What a beautiful rainbow!" exclaimed Mother.
 - b. "Did you know God made the rainbow?" she asked.
 - c. "I know He made the rainbow," said John.
 - d. "He made the first rainbow after Noah came out of the ark," said Gladys.
 - e. "Where does the rainbow end?" asked little Katie.
 - f. "There is another rainbow!" exclaimed John.
 - g. "Do you think Father sees the rainbows?" asked Mother.
 - h. "Do you think Grandmother sees them?" asked Katie.
2. (Quotation marks are underlined.)

"Mother, look! See what we found!" exclaimed Leon and Lily. Two pairs of bright brown eyes sparkled with excitement.

Mother looked at the tiny bird Leon was holding. It sat quietly on his hand and looked up at them with bright little eyes.

"Isn't it a pretty little bird, Mother?" Lily stroked it very gently with her finger.

"A tiny hummingbird!" breathed Mother softly. "Where did you find it?" she asked.

"Out on the lane," Lily answered.

Leon said, "It must have fallen out of its nest. I think it's too little to fly. Can we feed it, Mother, till it grows big enough to fly?"

"What will it eat?" Lily wondered. Then she asked, "Shall I catch a bug?"

"Hummingbirds drink nectar out of flowers," Mother explained.