

IV. What Shimei did as he went along the hill nearby

- A. _____
- B. _____

B. Find the answers to the questions below in the sentences given. Mark the answers in this way for each number.

- a. Underline the answer to question a.
- b. Draw two lines under the answer to question b.
- c. Draw three lines under the answer to question c.
- d. Circle the answer to question d.

1. At last David reached the top of Mount Olivet, a mountain just a little east of Jerusalem.
 - a. What is Mount Olivet?
 - b. Where is Mount Olivet?
 - c. Who was on Mount Olivet?
 - d. On what part of the mountain was he?
2. While David was on Mount Olivet, Hushai, one of David's friends, came to meet him.
 - a. Why did Hushai come?
 - b. Who was Hushai?
 - c. Whom did Hushai meet?
 - d. Where did Hushai meet him?
3. As Shimei cursed, he also threw stones and dust at King David and at all his servants.
 - a. What did Shimei do?
 - b. Who threw stones at David?
 - c. At how many servants did Shimei throw stones?
 - d. What did Shimei throw?
4. Joab's brother said to David, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord, the king?"
 - a. Who asked this question?
 - b. Of whom did he ask it?
 - c. What did he call Shimei?
 - d. What did Joab's brother call David?
5. At last the king and all the people with him came to a place where they could rest themselves.
 - a. Who rested?
 - b. To where did the people come?
 - c. When did they get there?
 - d. What could they do there?