

would send prophets and apostles. Some of them you will kill and harm. You will be guilty of all the blood of all the prophets who were killed. Woe to you, lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering in.”

As Jesus said these things to the lawyers, the scribes and Pharisees began to strongly urge Him to talk about many things. They were watching for Him to say something for which they could accuse Him.
