D. LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE BIBLE

God's Children of Promise

Before God created the earth, He knew that man would sin and would need a Redeemer to save him. So God planned a family line that He could use to bring the Redeemer, Jesus Christ, into the world.

In each generation after Adam, another person was born into the line of people through whom the Redeemer would someday come. This person was the child of promise. Each child of promise brought the coming of Jesus one generation closer.
