

3. After Daniel was silent for a long time, he explained the dream.
4. As Nebuchadnezzar was boasting one day, a voice spoke from heaven.
5. The people drove Nebuchadnezzar from the palace because he acted like an animal.
6. After Nebuchadnezzar had his right mind again, he honored the King of heaven.

C. Write complex sentences of your own, using these dependent clauses. Begin sentences 1 and 2 with the adverb clause, and sentences 3 and 4 with the main clause.

1. before anyone could stop him
2. if you do not know the answer
3. because we were late
4. although I had not seen it

Review Exercises

A. Write the correct words in parentheses. [106]

1. Marilyn can write (good, well).
2. Jonathan is feeling quite (good, well) again.
3. This book about foxes is (good, well).
4. We had not seen (none, any) of the girls.
5. We hadn't seen (none, any) of the boys either.
6. I (can, can't) hardly see where we are going.

B. Write the correct word for each sentence. Also write whether that word is a direct object, an indirect object, a predicate nominative, or a predicate adjective. [64, 106]

1. Mother gave (we, us) girls the directions.
2. Sarah brought (she, her) to us.
3. The song leader is (he, him).
4. This pie tastes (good, well).
5. Father told (we, us) boys the story.

3. After Daniel was silent for a long time, explained
4. As Nebuchadnezzar was boasting one day, spoke
5. because he acted like an animal, drove
6. After Nebuchadnezzar had his right mind again, honored

C. (Individual sentences.)

Review Exercises

- A.
1. well
 2. well
 3. good
 4. any
 5. any
 6. can

- B.
1. us—indirect object
 2. her—direct object
 3. he—predicate nominative
 4. good—predicate adjective
 5. us—indirect object