

86

felt bad about the destruction he was witnessing.

5. What major advantage did the bomber have, which made it a very important piece of fire-fighting equipment? What was the helicopter's chief advantage?
6. Successful fighting of forest fires often depends on more than having the right equipment and enough men to use it effectively. What is a very important factor that is completely out of the firefighters' control?
7. David was not able to relax until he realized that the fire would likely be under control soon. Copy a sentence which shows that he was very tense up to this point.