

8. Adjectives with these suffixes often replace the nouns they modify because they are more expressive than the nouns.
9. a. excellent d. approval
b. personal e. correspondent
c. assistant f. attendant
10. -ing
11. a. guardian c. physician
b. republican d. librarian
12. inhabitant of or follower of 13. a. Indian d. Ephesian
b. Lutheran e. Mexican
c. Egyptian f. Confucian 14. a. extension c. dissolve
b. impatient d. promotion

Answer Key—Part D

1. The Romans made Britain a province of the Roman Empire and ruled it for about three and one-half centuries.
2. (Any two.) Welsh, Irish Gaelic, Scottish Gaelic, Breton
3. about half
4. the Roman Catholic influence; the influence through Celtic transmission
5. There were many dialects of Old English, and some of these were so different that the speakers had difficulty understanding each other.
6. (Any two. Other answers also possible.) They established churches, taught the Latin alphabet, and introduced classical learning.
7. degenerated