

Law of Universal Gravitation

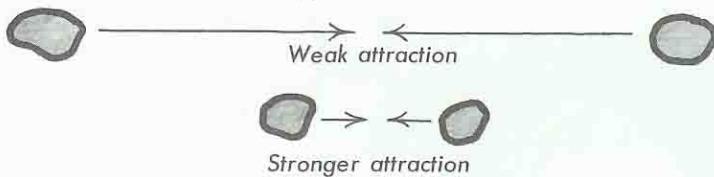

1. Every material object in the universe is attracted to every other material object.

2. The more matter in the two objects, the greater the gravitational attraction between them.

3. The closer two objects are together, the greater the gravitational attraction.

4. The attraction of gravity can be considered as acting from the gravitational center of one object to the gravitational center of the other object.

