

Pupil Textbook • Unit 8

14. A caterpillar is
- (a) the larva stage of a butterfly or moth.
 - (b) the pupa stage of a butterfly or moth.
 - (c) the nymph stage of a grasshopper.
 - (d) the adult stage of a grasshopper.
15. Which statement best describes the insect's relation to man?
- (a) Insects are harmful to man's efforts to provide food and clothing.
 - (b) The only value of insects to man is the flower pollination of some insects.
 - (c) Insects are so small that they cause man very little problem.
 - (d) While some insects are harmful to man others are definitely helpful.
16. Arachnids and crustaceans are in the same group with insects because they all have
- (a) the same number of legs.
 - (b) wings and can fly.
 - (c) jointed legs.
 - (d) three body divisions.
17. Which of the following vertebrates is warm-blooded?
- (a) fish (b) birds (c) reptiles (d) amphibians
18. If you knew that a certain vertebrate had lungs and was covered with scales, you would know that it was
- (a) an amphibian (b) a fish
(c) a reptile (d) a mammal.
19. Which of the following is not a marvelous characteristic of birds?
- (a) feathers (b) metamorphosis (c) hollow bones (d) migration
20. Which of the following characteristics of man is not shared by the mammals?
- (a) Man has a backbone made of many vertebrae.
 - (b) Man is a living soul.
 - (c) Man breathes with the aid of a diaphragm.
 - (d) Man has hair.