

Trace and write the letters.

Writing the capital and small letters of the alphabet is continued from page 49. The dotted letters should be traced, and identical letters should be written on the lines below. Is child writing carefully with good posture?

Extra: Using other lined paper, child could practice the capital and small letters of the alphabet, using the inside front cover chart as a guide. Does child form each letter correctly, writing carefully on the lines?